

Jesus speaks about his fall on the way of the cross:

"By my first fall I obtained for sinners rooted in evil, the grace of conversion . . . By my second fall, encouragement for those weak souls, blinded by sadness and anxiety, so that rising up they might make a fresh start in the way of virtue."